

Voice To The Nations Limited Code of Conduct

Staff, leaders and volunteers are responsible for maintaining a professional role with children, which means establishing and maintaining clear boundaries that serve to protect everyone from misunderstanding or a violation of the relationship.

This Code of Conduct sets out the behaviour which Voice To The Nations Church expects from all people associated with or representing it.

Purpose

Primarily this code will help to protect children, young people and vulnerable adults from abuse and inappropriate behaviour from adults/people in leadership. It will also help staff and volunteers understand and maintain the standard behaviour expected of them.

Secondly, this will work to reduce the possibility of allegations of abuse being made against leaders and people in authority and provide possible victims a pathway for voicing their concerns.

Thirdly, this will also work to reduce the possibility of allegations of abuse being made against our organisation.

Upholding this Code of Conduct

All members of staff, leadership and volunteers are expected to report any breaches of this code to the Safe Ministries Coordinator under the child protection policies and safeguarding procedures put in place by Voice To The Nations Church.

Staff, leaders and volunteers who breach this Code of Conduct will be subject to Voice Church's disciplinary procedures.

Any breach of the code involving external workers/volunteers may result in them being asked to leave Voice Church and any associated programs/events/ministries.

Serious breaches may also result in a report being made to authorities, such as police and the local statutory child protection authorities.

Voice To The Nations condemns all forms of child abuse, discrimination and sexual exploitation, and is committed to creating and maintaining an environment which promotes safety and inclusiveness for children. Child abuse occurs when adults or other children hurt children or young people under the age of 18, either physically, emotionally, sexually, through neglect, or in some other way.

Voice Church is committed to and will provide a safe environment for people living with a disability, people with a cultural and/or linguistically diverse background.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the Safe Church Policies, and agree that in the course of my association with Voice To The Nations Church,

I WILL:

- Conduct myself in a manner that is consistent with the values of Voice Church
- Treat all children and young people with respect, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, language, religion, political/other opinion, national/ethnic/social origin, property, disability, birth/other status
- Provide a welcoming, inclusive and safe environment for all children, young people, parents, staff and volunteers
- Follow and report any concerns of child abuse in accordance with the Voice Church Child Protection Policy and procedures
- Keep confidential all information that I am party to regarding child protection cases, disclosing and discussing information only with the Safe Ministries Coordinator Person or other parties designated by them and according to reporting procedures
- Respect cultural differences
- Encourage open communication between all children, young people, parents, staff and volunteers, and allow children and young people to participate in the decisions that affect them.
- Be transparent in my actions and whereabouts.
- Take responsibility for ensuring I am accountable and do not place myself in positions where there is a risk of allegations being made. Wherever possible, I will ensure that another adult is present when I am working in the proximity of children. I will discuss other measures as necessary with the Voice Church Safe Ministries Coordinator
- Mindful of my behaviour, actions, language and relationships with children
- Report any concerns or suspicions regarding abuse by a fellow worker, volunteer, contractor or visitor, via Voice Church child protection reporting procedures unless they are thought to be the perpetrator
- Comply with all relevant Australian and State/Territory legislation
- Immediately disclose all charges, convictions and other exploitation and abuse and policy non-compliance in accordance with appropriate procedures
- Ensure any contact with children, young people and vulnerable adults is appropriate and in the parameters of the program/event/ministry as stated
- Always ensure language is appropriate and not offensive or discriminatory

- Ensure programs are made accessible for people with a disability, and to make changes where needed to assist any specific needs that may arise
- Provide examples of good conduct in daily activities
- Challenge unacceptable behaviour and report all allegations/suspensions of abuse
- Encourage young people and adults to feel comfortable and caring enough to point out attitudes or behaviour they do not like
- Recognise that special caution is required when you are discussing sensitive issues with children or young people

I WILL NOT:

- Engage in behaviour that is intended to shame, humiliate, belittle or degrade children, young people or vulnerable adults
- Use inappropriate, offensive, harassing, abusive, sexually provocative, demeaning, culturally inappropriate or discriminatory language when speaking with a child or young person
- Allow allegations/suspected abuse/risk of harm or disclosures to go unreported
- Do things of a personal nature that a child can do for him/herself, such as assistance with toileting or changing clothes. If this is necessary, for example for a child with a disability, I will inform my supervisor first and be as open as possible in my behaviour
- Hit or physically assault children. This includes refraining from physical punishment or discipline of children
- Develop inappropriate relationships with children, young people or vulnerable adults
- Conduct a sexual relationship with a child or young person or indulge in any form of sexual contact with a child or young person
- Seek to make contact and or spend time with any child that I come into contact with in my role as a representative of Voice Church outside of the designated times and activities set for performing my role as a representative of Voice Church
- Condone or participate in behaviour of children that is illegal, unsafe or abusive
- Act in a way that shows unfair and differential treatment of children, young people and vulnerable adults
- Release or discuss any personal confidential information about suspected or proven child abuse or protection cases other than with the Safe Ministries Coordinator and other parties as designated by them and according to reporting procedures.
- Use any computer, mobile phone, or video and digital camera to exploit or harass children

- Let children and young people have your personal contact details (mobile number, address, email or social media accounts)
- Make sarcastic, insensitive, derogatory or sexually suggestive comments or gestures to or in front of children and young people
- Act in a way that can be perceived as threatening or intrusive
- Make inappropriate promises to children and young people, particularly in relation to confidentiality
- Jump to conclusions about others
- Exaggerate or trivialise child abuse issues
- Rely on your reputation or that of the organisation to protect you

Voice To The Nations Limited Code of Conduct

I acknowledge that I am responsible for my own actions and utilise safe church standards and best practices to avoid actions and behaviours that could be in breach of this code of conduct and the Safe Church/Child Protection policies of Voice Church.

I have read the Voice To The Nations Child Protection Policy and Code of Conduct and am aware that Voice To The Nations expects me to uphold the standards of behaviour described in the Code of Conduct above, at all times. I also understand that disciplinary measures and legal steps will be taken if I am found to be in breach of the Code of Conduct, and authorities may need to be informed for the safety of a child, vulnerable adult, staff member, or the organisation, or to meet obligations under Australian law.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____